It is the boast of the steel trust that it can afford to lay steel rails down in the European markets for $16 per ton. At the same time it is charging $28 per ton for rails sold in this country. THAT awful catastrophe at St. Pierre, Martinique, has shocked the civilized world. It's a case calling upon the na- tions of the world for relief, rather than upon individuals, and Uncle Sam is about the first to respond. PROBABLY Senator Hanna's efforts to get Major Rathbone out of the postal fraud troubles down at Havana are almost wholly of a selfish character. It is hinted Rathbone could give some highly in- teresting information about the Senator's election. A THOUSAND butchers in New York have closed their shops till the price of meat is lowered, and 250,000 persons will take to milk and egg diet as a result. Milk and eggs are far more healthful and nourishing than meats, and the people will be better off in more ways than one. By all means that ship subsidy bill should now be passed. J. Pierrepont Morgan has gobbled up most of the steamship lines, and he needs this ad- ditional "graft" in his business. The ocean traffic is so unprofitable, you know, that he wouldn't want all the steamers unless Uncle Sam intends to help sup- port 'em. GOVERNOR CUMMINS, of Iowa, is another Republican who comes out in favor of some radical modifications of his party's policy, among them the reduction of the tariff on all trust-made articles and gov- ernment control of the prices of products made under monopolistic management. Competition and law he declares to be the remedies for the industrial problem, and where the conditions eliminate com- petition he would have the law interpose to protect the individual. "This is, to say the least, a radical departure from the policy hitherto pursued by the Re- publicans," remarks the Louisville Post, "and that so conspicuous a Republican as the Governor of Iowa should take this advanced position is significant of a grad- ual change in the party attitude." SENATOR HANNA is leaving no stone un- turned in his efforts to get his friend Major Rathbone out of that postal trouble down in Havana. President Roosevelt has granted the Senator's request by di- recting Secretary Root to confer upon the Cuban Court of Appeals jurisdiction to hear additional testimony. Just why the administration should resort to such un- usual methods in behalf of Rathbone is a mystery which only Hanna himself could probably explain. The hearing will be given immediately. After Rath- bone's conviction his attorneys took an appeal from the lower court to the Cuban Court of Appeals, but this latter court decided that it had not jurisdiction, ex- cepting upon the law in the case. The decision was followed by Senator Hanna's arrangement with the Baltimore Surety Company for a bail bond of $100,000, pending a decision in the case. The question before the President and Sec- retary of War was as to whether to order a new trial by the lower court or confer jurisdiction upon the higher court to re- view every phase of the case. The last cited plan was decided upon, the under- standing being that the case be given immediate attention in order that it may be disposed of prior to the 20th inst.— the date upon which the new Cuban Government will be inaugurated. WALTER HALDEMAN'S SCHOOL- ING. The Courier-Journal makes the fol- lowing reference to the schools of May- sville in the early part of the last century: John Haldeman and Elizabeth New- man, soon after their marriage in Dau- phin County, Pennsylvania, emigrated to the rapidly developing State of Ken- tucky some time previous to 1820, and settled at what was called "Mouth of Limestone," now Maysville. There on April 27, 1821, was born their first child. This first child was Walter Newman Haldeman. He spent his boyhood in Maysville, the place of his birth, and there at an early age he was sent to school. His first teacher was Mr. Scar- borough; his second was the Rev. Mr. Logan, of Pittsburg; and then he entered the school of William W. Richeson, which afterwards became known as the Rand & Richeson school, after Jacob W. Rand became a partner in what they called the Maysville Academy. Later it be- came known as "Maysville Seminary," and was, perhaps, next to Transylvania University, at Lexington, the most famous educational institution in Ken- tucky during the early part of the last century. The school was beautifully situated on the side of one of the high hills that surround this prosperous little city, affording an uninterrupted view of the Ohio river for many miles, having abundance of pure air and picturesque surroundings. ASSESSMENT DOUBLED. The L. and N. Franchise Valuation Placed at Over $12,000,000. FRANKFORT, Ky., May 13.—The franchise valuation of the L. and N. Railroad Com- pany in Kentucky was fixed by the State Board of Valuation and Assessment to- day at $12,913,451, an increase of $6,408,- 572 over the valuation fixed for 1901. On this the company will have to pay an increase of State taxes of more than $30,000. Heretofore the franchise valuation has been ascertained by capitalizing the net income at 6 per cent. This year the State Board first ascertained the total valuation by taking the stock of the com- pany at the average price for the year and its bonds at par and then deducting the amount of tangible property already assessed. The increase in taxes is more than 50 per cent. The company will ask a reconsidera- tion. This increase is not due to the recent rise in the stock of that company, as the assessment was made on reports filed as of September 15, 1901, as the cor- poration law requires. The board in arriving at the valuation took the cap- ital stock of the company at its average cash value during the year from Sep- tember 15, 1900, to September 15, 1901, which was shown to be $87.08, and the bonds of the company at par, and made this the total valuation, tangible and intangible, of the company. Twenty- six per cent. of this, the amount of the road lying within the State of Ken- tucky, was, at this valuation, worth $35,926,451. From this the value of the tangible property as assessed by the State Railroad Commission, amounting to $23,013,000, was deducted. This left the franchise valuation at $12,913,451. Last year the board arrived at the val- uation of the Louisville and Nashville Company on the net earnings of the company. Then the total valuation of the company in Kentucky was fixed at $29,774,509. The tangible property de- ducted left a franchise valuation of $6,- 504,879. KENTUCKY RED MEN. Lively Fight Among Democrats Over the Judgeship in Nicholas-Robertson-Harrison District. CYNTHIANA, Ky., May 13.—The political pot is boiling in the Eighteenth Judicial district, composed of the counties of Har- rison, Nicholas and Robertson. Judge Osborne, the present Circuit Judge, who was elected last fall to fill out the unex- pired term of Judge W. W. Kimbrough, is a candidate for reelection, and Hon. L. P. Fryer, the present Commonwealth's Attorney, is also a candidate for the nom- ination. Judge Osborne received his nomination last fall from the hands of Dr. H. C. Smith, Chairman of the Dis- trict Committee, a month before the day of election, and this fact is one of the points used against him by the Fryer fac- tion, although the Osborne faction claim that Fryer attempted to do the same thing, but that Dr. Smith was favorable to the candidacy of Osborne. In Robertson County things have come to white heat and the Osborne committee met at Mt. Olivet the other day and threw out Mr. Claypool, Chairman of the Robertson County Committee. No one has been elected in his place, but an Os- borne man will be put in. These acts have caused a row in the camp. The Fryer people are bitter and are demand- ing a primary. Fryer claims that with a primary he can easily defeat Osborne, whose friends say that a convention is the best for the people of the district. However it turns out, warm electioneer- ing is the order of the day. In Harrison County the politicians are determined Osborne shall win and are working for him with all their might. DEATH LIST GROWS. Cause of the Naphtha Explosion Will Be Investigated. PITTSBURG, May 15.—The casualty list resulting from Monday's disaster at Sheraden continues to grow. Two deaths were reported during the morn- ing. Albert Berry, aged 10 years, and Conrad Flick, aged 43 years. The official list of deaths as reported to the coroner shows but 17 names. A number of bodies are said to have been taken in charge and not yet reported. The discrepancy in the official list and the one published is partially explained by the fact that some of the victims of the explosion were wrongly identified by over-anxious friends and missing persons and in this way two and three names were given for one body. About 300 were injured and the property loss is placed at $175,000. The cause of the explosion of the naphtha tank cars will be investigated by the Panhandle railroad officials. River News.
